

The need for speed the run english language pack rapidshare is one of the most pirated game of 2011. A pc gamer needs good graphics, 3d eye-candy, and ultimate speeds to enjoy a game. When you play this game it will give you so much speed where you actually feel like you are in an automobile race. We found this game uses 100% cpu usage after 10 min on average machine, which means do not use this if your system has any problem with max 2 or 4 threads. (or upgrade your system.) It uses more than 100MB of memory and in some cases it tends to use maximum memory and swap space available. This game is entertaining and challenging at the same time, also it provides an option for both single player and multiplayer gaming. Similar to other online games it requires you to be very attentive while playing such that you do not get caught by any obstacle on the road like railway tracks or guard railings. In this game you have a choice to select different cars from a list of performance car manufactures which include Audi, Bugatti, Ferrari, Lamborghini, Koenigsegg, Lotus, Lotec, Maserati, Mercedes-Benz, Porsche, Spyker and Wiesmann. In the beginning of the game you need to choose your racing path, for example cities of San Francisco, Miami, Chicago or New York. It has been reported that this game has been downloaded more than 2.5 million times from torrents by February 2012 which is a shocking number for a single game.
